10TH SEP 2018 | 8 - 11AM | ESSEX CRICKET CLUB

“Is a hard Brexit inevitable?”

“How will employment law affect my business from 2019 onwards?”

“What are the economic risks and biggest economic potential surrounding Brexit?”

“What about Brexit contingency planning, compliance audits and international customs changes in the run up to 2019?”

MARK TAYLOR
BRITANNIA BUREAU LTD

Having spent the majority of his 35-year career within the import freight forwarding industry focussing on customs and international trade practices, Mark, together with his business partner, Jamie Stuart, founded Britannia Bureau Ltd, to help identify risk of non-compliance within customers' supply chains, while at the same time highlighting opportunity for significant savings, which arise out of duty optimisation, supply chain savings and cash flow improvement.

PAUL ANDREWS
NATWEST | ACIB/BSC (HONS) MCIBS

The local Corporate & Commercial Banking team will discuss the various ways businesses can protect themselves from the uncertainties that Brexit is bringing with it. Whilst every business will be different, there are ways in which NatWest can help your business minimise the risks. Our team will highlight some of the ways we are already assisting our current clients soften any potential downside and help to ensure Brexit does not catch you out.

BRAD ASHTON
RSM

RSM is a leading provider of audit, tax and consulting services to middle market leaders globally. With around 3,500 partners and staff in the UK and access to more than 43,000 people in over 120 countries across the RSM network, we can meet our clients' needs wherever in the world they operate.

Brad will discuss the potential implications of Brexit relating to customs union issues; EEA; the potential impact of the Government White Paper; WTO rules; trade and tariff issues.

IAN JENSEN-HUMPHREYS
SEVEN INVESTMENT | CHIEF INVESTMENT OFFICER

7IM are an investment management business that aims for more stability and predictability over the long term, so the amount you need has a better chance of being there when you need it.

We set up the business in 2002 because we couldn't find an investment management service we'd be happy to use ourselves. We invest alongside you too and we now have £13bn under management. We're careful on cost and big on service; it's a common-sense approach that's surprisingly hard to find.

EIMEAR DALY
GLOBAL REACH

Global Reach are a leading provider of corporate foreign exchange, offering strategic insight and guidance to help businesses manage their currency exposure more effectively.

Eimear will discuss the sterling's depreciation since the EU referendum and what it presents, the economic risks of Brexit and whether any other European Union countries pose a serious threat to the dominance of the City of London.

JONATHAN INSLEY
TEES

Tees are a top 150 UK legal practice based over 5 offices across the East Anglian region offering clients a range of business, agricultural and personal legal and financial services.

Jonathan is a Senior Associate within the Business Team at Tees specialising in employment law since 2007.

Panel Host | Ronnie Irani

Ronnie is a former Essex and England Cricketer who moved from Lancashire C.C.C. to play for Essex C.C.C. in 1994. He quickly gained cult status before becoming Captain for Essex in 2000 where he did a fine job in charge, winning 2 major titles, and helped develop international cricketers at the time.

WHAT TO EXPECT

A breakfast meet for local businesses in Essex to learn about, discuss and connect on the latest Brexit issues facing UK businesses in 2019. Hosted by former England Cricket Captain, Ronnie Irani, the Brexit breakfast will see a host of experts come together to present, discuss and answer the latest implications you need to consider ahead of 2019. A group Q+A and time for independent meetings and chats will follow the panel discussion with breakfast served throughout.

We care. We connect. We deliver.
